

Welcome to the Benefice of Dallington & St James

NOTICES From 14th. October - 31st. December 2018

Posted 23rd. December

Christmas message from your PCC.

In the absence of a vicar in our Benefice, your PCC would like to thank you for your forbearance during the vacancy, and wish you a very happy and joyous Christmas

The service of institution and induction of Rev Sue will take place on Feb 2nd at 15.00 at St Marys, followed by teas in the Old School. All are welcome to attend, please support us.

Christmas cards 2018

The following people send their best wishes to you all for a merry Christmas and a happy new year. Anne Jelly, Sandra and John Oxborough, Beryl Smith, Pam Hayes, Ann Cooley, Wendy & Dave Wilson, Jill & Len Goodman, Ros & Kevin Carter, Marilyn Blackwood, John & Jennifer Thompson, Margaret Deacon & family, Kevin Green, Madeline Egonu.

Posted 9th. December

Appointment of Vicar

Your churchwardens are happy to confirm the appointment of the Rev Sue Faulkner as the new Vicar of the Benefice of Dallington and St James. Sue's collation and induction is scheduled for Feb 2nd 2019, (date to be confirmed) at 2pm at Dallington. We pray for her, and give thanks for the best Christmas gift we didn't expect, and we thank you for bringing forth someone with all the benefits her experience brings to this benefice. We pray for those left behind in the Knightley Benefice, who now have the problem of filling a vacancy. (Sue's picture and profile is available on the church website).

Christmas cards 2018

If you would like to send your friends a Christmas greeting on our weekly pewsheet, and make a donation to a local charity instead of sending out cards, please speak to Margaret Deacon or Ros Carter. The Hope Centre has been suggested as our charity to support.

Welcome to the Benefice of Dallington & St James

NOTICES From 14th. October - 31st. December 2018

Posted 2nd. December

Appointment of Vicar

Your churchwardens are happy to confirm the appointment of the Rev Sue Faulkner as the new Vicar of the Benefice of Dallington and St James. A date for Sue's collation and induction will be announced in due course. Please pray for her as she prepares to leave the Knightley Benefice and join us. (A picture and profile of the new vicar is available on the church website).

Advance warning of service change.

Apologies. There will be no Wednesday 10.00 service at St James on December 26th or January 2nd, due to the festive season. Sylvia Coles will start again on January 9th, and will continue holding the Wednesday 10.00 service until our new Vicar arrives.

Christmas Fayre

St James are pleased to announce they raised £397.00 on the day for a boost to our much needed Church funds. Our grateful thanks goes to everyone who supported the Fayre, and thanks to everyone who worked so hard to achieve the sum raised.

Peter Pan Pantomime. 13.00 Saturday December 8th 2018

All who have booked, please meet Deryck Webb, from 12.00 onwards, at a table in the Dergate Foyer close to the Guildhall Rd entrance, where your tickets will be available.

Volunteers

Help from willing others is required at both churches. Please come forward and volunteer your services. Contact church wardens for more info.

Posted 18th. November

Wednesday 21st November. 10,00am

The pupils and staff of St James school are holding a Holy Communion service in the school hall and all are invited

Volunteers

Help from willing others is required at both churches. Please come forward and volunteer your services, remember 'many hands make light work' Contact church wardens for more info.

Childrens Society boxes.

All those from Dallington who have Childrens Society boxes, please could you return them to Anne Miller during November

Welcome to the Benefice of Dallington & St James

NOTICES From 14th. October - 31st. December 2018

Posted 18th. November cont.

Church Websites . stjameschurch.org.uk dallingtonchurch.org.uk.
Both churches have websites which are updated regularly, and the church diary and most recent pew sheet are both accessible. These sites are pro-active depending on how the congregation react. Recently added to the websites are Christmas services and social events. If you wish to find, or add something, contact martinlloyd@uwclub.net

Posted 11th. November

Ann Miller and Sister Christine require clean jam jars, with tops, for their home-made produce. Please leave any jars at the back of your church

Posted 4th. November

Christian Aid boxes

All those from Dallington who have Christian Aid boxes, please could you return them to Ann Miller during November

Posted 21st. October

St James Rainbows & Brownies
St James Rainbows & Brownies are currently looking for new members.

Dave Wilson

Donations required of flowers, bulbs, plants or anything similar for fund raising on plant stall at St James Christmas Fayre on Nov 24th

Websites . stjameschurch.org.uk dallingtonchurch.org.uk.

Both churches have websites which are being updated regularly, and the church diary and pew sheet are both accessible. These sites are pro-active depending on how the congregation react. Hopefully, they will become the place to go to, to find about all events occurring in your church. If you wish to find, or add something, contact martinlloyd@uwclub.net

Volunteers

Help from willing others is required at both churches. Please come forward and volunteer your services, remember "many hands make light work." Contact church wardens for more info.

Welcome to the Benefice of Dallington & St James

NOTICES From 14th. October - 31st. December 2018

Published 14th. October

All Souls Service

Sign-up sheets are available at back of both Churches for those who wish to include names to be read out during the All Souls service on 2nd November

Christmas Fayre

On November 17th, Dallington are having their Xmas Fayre Donations for the Tombola. Gift, Xmas stalls etc., are needed., Please leave them at the back of the Church and support us. If there is anyone willing to help or willing to run a stall on the day, please talk to Anne Miller (07974 584587) or Tony Coles.

Christmas Fayre

November 24th, St James are having their Xmas Fayre. Donations for all stalls would be much appreciated. Contacts are Sandra Oxborough and Jill Goodman (01604 464668)

Remembrance Poppies

Remembrance poppies are available at the back of both Churches

St James Rainbows & Brownies

St James Rainbows & Brownies are currently looking for new members. Rainbows is for 5-7 year old and meets Wednesday's 5pm-6pm, and Brownies is for 8-10 year olds and meets on Wednesdays 6:15pm-7:45pm at St James Church hall

Volunteers needed

We need you. Volunteers are needed to help with the making and serving of tea's and coffee's after Church at Dallington.

We also require volunteers to read the lesson's and lead the intercessions, full training given.

If you feel you are able to help with the above or in other ways, Please talk to Church Wardens

Derek Le Vaast and Peter Gurney have produced this pewsheet since Father Phil left the Benefice. However, Derek is moving to Leeds in November, and a willing volunteer, preferably from Dallington Church is urgently required to fill his place, full training will be given. We offer Derek our best wishes for the future. All future articles for this pewsheet to petergurney911@gmail.com please