

The Rev Sue Faulkner, 48, is to be our new Vicar.

She is currently Priest in Charge of the Knightley parishes which includes the churches of Badby, Charwelton, Fawsley, Newnham and Preston Capes.

Although Rev. Sue has accepted the position of Vicar for the St. James & St. Mary's Benefice, her start date is yet to be arranged.

She is married to Rev Paul Mcleod, 52, who is Rector of the Whittlewood Parishes and Rural Dean of Towcester.

Rev Faulkner, who is originally from South East London, worked in Newcastle and lived in the north for seventeen years before moving to the Knightly benefice in November 2010.

Both Paul and Sue are keen motorsport enthusiasts and so living at Silverstone is a dream for them.

She particularly asked us to, 'pray for the Knightley Benefice as they prepare for a vacancy and the future', Rev Sue went on to say 'I am really looking forward to getting to know you all'.

Everyone in the St. James & St. Mary's Benefice look forward to welcoming Rev Sue and are delighted to have her appointment announced.
